Anyone Seen Our NRA Flag?

During the Tecumseh kids shoot this past weekend, it came to our attention that our NRA flag (graciously donated by a member last year) is now missing. If someone "borrowed" it, its prompt return would be greatly appreciated.

Tecumseh Kids: Thanks to everyone who came out to help at the range. We had 37 students attend this year and they all had a real good time. Here are the members who helped out:

Any Interest in IPSC Shooting?

With all the new members coming on board, and the increasing popularity of IPSC (USPSA) action pistol events, I felt I should inquire if anyone has interest in setting up and running these types of matches. They used to be very popular at Red Brush, and the IPSPS (Indiana Practical Pistol Shooters) branch committee has all the equipment needed to run such a match. What we lack are volunteers. If we can gather up 8-10 people who are genuinely interested in helping with set-up and tear-down (not just shooting and scooting), we can look into once again running USPSA matches at Red Brush. If you are interested, drop an email to webmaster@redbrush.org, or call me (Gene Flick) at 812-421-9117.
