Tecumseh Kids:

March 6th is the date for the Tecumseh Kids! About 50 Tecumseh students will arrive at the range Saturday March 6th on a school bus around 8:30 AM. Each year, Red Brush members act as instructors to help the students with a "hands-on" shooting event. We must have one instructor for each student. They will learn sight alignment, trigger control and additional gun handling safety from each of the 3 Chief Range Officers in charge of .22 handgun, .22 rifle, and 20 ga. shotgun. This is a "work day credit" for your help with this event. Please bring several .22 handguns and .22 rifles if you are coming to assist. Ammo should be provided by the DNR, but any extra would help and we will pay for it. Please let me know if you are able to help by sending an email or phone call. Thanks, Mike Maurer mikemaurer@wowway.com 490-0949

Great Auction Meeting!

The Annual Auction was deemed a great success! Everyone enjoyed the new space, the refreshments and plenty of items for sale. I can't wait until next year! If you liked the change of location for the auction, please let us know. We were going for more sit-down space and of course the refreshments that are not allowed at the clubhouse. We have heard complaints about the parking, but it was a special night at the facility that drew Legion members. We had tons of auction items that did find new homes and a few that couldn't pass the price barrier.

Food selection and prep was challenging since we were not allowed to use the Legion kitchen. If you enjoyed the food please say "Thanks" to Dave Harris, Larry Hahn, Bob & Betty Adams, Mary and Bob Lawrence, and Lois & Dan Willis for preparing, transporting, & serving the food. I would like to thank Don Koressel for providing a dozen packages of cookies.

As in past years, Harry & Maggie Stoll selected, purchased, and transported the four guns. They also worked from 6 until 10:30 selling tickets and counting money.

Special thanks to Brent Weil, Don Korressel, and David Mosley for doing their part as auctioneers in the annual auction! There were helpers that assisted in showing items for bidding ... Thank You!
